

Increase funding for rural districts who have a greater distance to reach the "hubs" but may not have a high enough student population to "warrant" an increase.